PREFACE.

In preparing "THE PARLIAMENTARY GUIDE AND WORK OF GENERAL REFERENCE" for 1901 every care has been taken to make it accurate and reliable. Besides the information concerning the Parliament of Canada and the several Legislatures of the Provinces and Territories the work contains a list of titles bestowed on Canadians, the population of each federal electoral district as ascertained by the census of 1901, and other useful facts and tables. The figures of the votes cast at the federal and each provincial general election for each candidate are in every case official.

An Act to extend the duration of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario.

WHEREAS by section 85 of The British North America Act, 1867, the duration of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario was fixed at a period of four years; and whereas by section 3 of chapter 12 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897, it is provided that every Legislative Assembly shall continue for four years from the fifty-fifth day after the writs for the election and no longer, subject to being sooner dissolved by the Lieutenant-Governor; and whereas it has generally been found more convenient for the Legislative Assembly not to assemble until at least thirty days after the close of the financial year, at which time the public accounts and departmental reports can be submitted for the consideration of the Assembly; and whereas the term of the present Legislative Assembly expires under the said chapter 12, Revised Statutes Ontario, 1897, on or about the twenty-ninth day of March, 1902, and the course of its business is liable to be interrupted by effluxion of time; and whereas by section 92 of The British North America Act power is given exclusively to the Legislature in each province to legislate among other things in relation to this matter :—

The ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE.

THERE are few national institutions of more value and interest to the country than the Royal Military College at Kingston. At the same time its object and the work it is accomplishing are not sufficiently understood by the general public.

The College is a Government institution, designed primarily for the purpose of giving the highest technical instructions in all branches of military science to cadets and officers of Canadian Militia. In fact it is intended to take the place in Canada of the English Woolwich and Sandhurst and the American West Point.

The Commandant and military instructors are all officers on the active list of the Imperial army, lent for the purpose, and in addition there is a complete staff of professors for the civil subjects which form such a large proportion of the College course.

Whilst the College is organized on a strictly military basis the cadets receive in addition to their military studies a thoroughly practical, scientific and sound training in all subjects that are essential to a high and general modern education.

The course in mathematics is very complete and a thorough grounding is given in the subjects of Civil Engineering, Civil and Hydrographic Surveying, Physics, Chemistry, French and English.

The object of the College course is thus to give the cadets a training which shall thoroughly equip them for either a military or civil career.

The strict discipline maintained at the College is one of the most valuable features of the system. As a result of it, young men acquire habits of obedience and self-control and consequently of self-reliance and command, as well as experience in controlling and handling their fellows.

In addition the constant practice of gymnastics, drills and outdoor exercises of all kinds, ensures good health and fine physical condition.

An experienced medical officer is in attendance at the College daily.

Five commissions in the Imperial regular army are annually awarded as prizes to the cadets.

The length of course is three years, in three terms of 9½ months' residence each.

The total cost of the three years' course, including board, uniforms, instructional material, and all extras, is from $750 to $800.

The annual competitive examination for admission to the College will take place at the headquarters of the several military districts in which candidates reside, in May of each year.

For full particulars of this examination or for any other information application should be made as soon as possible, to the Adjutant General of Militia, Ottawa, Ont.
